- Get up-close with woolly llamas, vicuñas and alpacas and learn to tell them apart
- Practice counting in Spanish as you bargain for handcrafted souvenirs in lively local markets
- Learn about a day in the life of young Peruvian students at a village school visit
- Get hands-on with clay at an artistic ceramics workshop
- Watch the ancient citadel of Machu Picchu emerge from the clouds
- Find out why the Incas chose this spot for building Machu Picchu at the Manuel C. Ballón Museum
- Get creative in the kitchen with a Peruvian demo cooking class
- Dance and play inside the enchanted water fountains in Lima's "magic water circuit" park

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY:

DAY 01	HOME / LIMA Depart home and arrive this evening to Peru's capital city, Lima. After clearing customs, walk a short distance on your own to your hotel located across from the airport terminal. Wyndham Grand Costa del Sol Hotel – 1 night (elev 112') Flight note: Some flights from the USA to Lima are overnight, arriving in the morning on Day 02.
DAY 02	LIMA / CUSCO / SACRED VALLEY You will be picked up early this morning to check in for a short scenic flight over the Andes to Cusco (11,150'). Meet your Andean guide and drive 1-hour to the lower elevations of Pisac in the Sacred Valley of the Incas. En route we visit the Awana Kancha textile center to learn about South American camelids (llamas, alpacas, vicuñas and guanacos) and admire their woolly coats. We can also see weavers craft wool the same way their ancestors have done for generations. Descending into the warm valley, our next stop is at the town of Pisac (9,708') to walk among typical houses and artists' shops offering colorful handicrafts. Kids can exchange their Peruvian soles for handmade jewelry, watercolor paintings, carved gourds, key rings and instruments. We enjoy a delicious Andean lunch at a family own restaurant and stretch our legs on a panoramic walk through Pisac's impressive Incan ruins, perched spectacularly on a ridge overlooking the countryside. The 2-mile walking tour winds along a wide stone-paved trail dotted with lookout points. We visit the Intihuatana (Hitching Post of the Sun) religious center and observe dozens of agricultural terraces built to follow the hillside contours rising from the Urubamba River Valley. Afterwards, we drive down the valley to the community of Urubamba and check-in to the colorful, private casitas of our Andean hacienda style hotel at 9,430'. Dinner is at your leisure to dine a-la-carte to try tasty local dishes in the hotel's Killa Wasi restaurant. Sol y Luna Hotel & Spa (a Relais & Chateaux hotel) – 2 nights (elev 9,186') (B,L)
DAY 03	CHINCHERO / OLLANTAYTAMBO After breakfast this morning, kids will have a unique chance to meet their Peruvian peers with a primary school visit at Harin or Sillacancha. Practice your greetings in Spanish, visit a classroom and have an exchange with children and teachers. Share school supplies that Southwind donates to the school on behalf of our guests. Roll up your sleeves for crafts time at the nearby Yawarmaky ceramic workshop, where you can watch the masters and learn about the process of creating beautiful pieces, then try your hand at sculpting a small pot with clay. Next, we'll reach the nearby town of Ollantaytambo, where we visit the main plaza of this unique community whose streets and foundations were originally designed by the Incas. We'll be welcomed into a local home to gain insight into a traditional and simple lifestyle. Then, we'll make a quick visit to the lower section of the ruins complex to look for "the bath of the princess", a fountain at the base of the impressive, terraced remains of the Sun Temple. A special traditional lunch awaits at Wayra with buffet options for all kinds of eaters. Sample a variety of native delicacies including several types of potatoes (tubers such as oca); quinoa (sacred to the Incas, referred to as the "mother of all grains"), fava beans and corn. During lunch, a Paso Fino horse show will dazzle as the national equestrian breed demonstrates the elegance of their lilting gait to the rhythm of Marinera, an emblematic Peruvian dance. After a short scenic ride up the valley, we'll scratch our curiosity about where salt comes from at the Salt mines, a fascinating patchwork of white and water. A series of over 2,000 terraced mountainside pools fed by a natural spring are still being worked by local families today. Return to the peaceful comfort of the hotel where dinner is on your own at leisure this evening. Sol y Luna Hotel & Spa – 2 nights (B,L)

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

DAY 04	MACHU PICCHU Rise early to meet your private guide and head back to Ollantaytambo to board the Vistadome train for a 1.5 hour ride to the village of Machu Picchu. Ascend to Machu Picchu (7,973') by shuttle and continue with your expert guide for a private tour of this superb archaeological site. Perched atop a crest high above the meandering Urubamba River and surrounded by rugged, green Andean hillsides, Machu Picchu stands as more than just the jewel of Inca architecture. It represents the perfect union of human engineering and the natural environment, a city in harmony with its surroundings. Never reached by the Spanish, this magical place was brought to the world's attention in 1911 by the American historian, Hiram Bingham. Our explorations of The Lost City of the Incas include most of the sectors of the ruins; the industrial area, Temple of the Sun and Royal Tomb, the ceremonial water fountains and baths and Sacred Plazas. We take a break for lunch at the Tinkuy buffet restaurant just outside the gates which serves a variety of hot and fresh selections. There should be time today for the 30-minute walk to the Inca Drawbridge, an ingenious defensive feature on the side of the citadel. Ride the shuttle down to the village of Machu Picchu and check-in to the hotel, a former National Geographic Unique Lodge of the World, set among lush orchid gardens. Dinner is included this evening at the hotel's restaurant known for its creative fusion cuisine. Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel – 2 nights (elev 6,627') (B,L,D)
DAY 05	MACHU PICCHU Rising very early to beat the crowds, those who wish can head to the ruins (gates open at 06:00) to see the early morning light as the sun comes over Intipunku, or the Gateway of the Sun. There are several optional guided hikes at Machu Picchu according to interest, tickets availability and energy level: • Huchuy Picchu, departing from an access gate, an easy and family-friendly gradual uphill hike on a newly cleared trail takes us after 30 min to a lookout point at 8,193 ft. • A more moderate option is a 1.5 hour up-and-downhill hike on a shaded trail ending at the mysterious, partially excavated Temple of the Moon (7,220'). This natural cave has carved rocks fitted perfectly to form a wall of doors and windows. This passage is a fun off-the-beaten-path alternative to the Huayna Picchu hike. Recommended for kids ages 7/up. • Huayna Picchu, or Young Peak, looms over the citadel at 8,836'. The strenuous one-hour climb follows a very steep and exposed trail, ending at terraces and ruins on the mountain's top, where you'll earn a thrilling bird's-eye view of Machu Picchu. The route ascends steadily uphill approx 1.5 hours (850 ft) on a winding and sometimes exposed trail requiring hands for balance and to hold handrails on steeper sections. Recommended for kids ages 12 and older. Today the schedule will be planned in advance according to weather and group's inclinations. Those who prefer may simply choose an overlook to meditate, photograph, or continue personal guided explorations of this archaeological wonder at your own pace. Lunch is at Tinkuy. In the afternoon, the guide may lead the way to the Temple of the Condor, where a carving of the head of a condor can be seen on the ground, with the rocks in the temple forming the outstretched wings of the bird. From there, we may head over to the hidden Intimachay, which lets in a magic window of light on the two solstice days of the year, and other special spots within Machu Picchu including the "perfect wall". When everyone is ready, we'll return to the familiar hotel for a restful evening and gourmet dinner. Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel (B,L,D)

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

DAY 06	MACHU PICCHU / CUSCO Get out your binoculars! Early this morning we'll go on a birdwatching excursion and have a chance to spot as many as 18 different hummingbird species on the hotel grounds. Look for the torrent duck and the white-capped dipper or the silver-beaked and blue necked tanagers. The wildlife fun continues with a nature talk and learning about Inkaterra's spectacled bear conservation project, South America's only bear species, now critically endangered. The goal of the non-profit organizations involved in this project is to rescue injured bears and reintroduce them into their natural habitat. Next, we'll hop on a bus for a short ride to visit the Manuel C. Ballón museum, considered a great hidden secret of Machu Picchu by National Geographic. The excellent museum fills in many of the blanks about how and why Machu Picchu was built, and why the Inca chose such an extraordinary natural location for the citadel. From here, we may visit the nearby butterfly house and continue with a 25-min walk back into town for an exquisite lunch at the Sumaq Hotel restaurant, one of the finest in town. That afternoon, we'll follow a 1.5 hour scenic journey back to Ollantaytambo via Vistadome train. Tracing the course of the Urubamba River, we wind our way past Incan terraces and Quechua communities as we leave the lush cloud forests behind and make our way back to the highlands. Reception upon arrival and transfer by private vehicle to Cusco. Enjoy panoramic views of the snow-capped Urubamba range en route, including Mount Veronica and Pitusiray peak - both over 18,000 feet high! Arriving around 7:30pm, there's time to check into the hotel centrally located near the main plaza. This Luxury Collection hotel by Marriott is the restored palace of the first governor of Peru, Francisco Pizarro, built over the Inca's Aclla Huasi foundation. In the evening, for convenience after a full day of touring, we recommend the hotel's excellent Inti Raymi restaurant. Palacio del Inka Hotel – 2 nights (elev 11,150') (B,L)
DAY 07	CUSCO This morning we'll explore Cusco by van and by foot in a way that kids can get into. We'll start at the colorful and lively San Pedro open air market, where we can observe indigenous people selling a variety of fruits, typical foods, breads, vegetables, herbs, clothing and much more. Next stop is the Casa Concha Museum, which displays a variety of artifacts from Machu Picchu and brings the citadel to life with a scaled model and energetically guided imaginings of what it was like during its prime. Heading towards the historical Main Square, we contemplate the Cathedral and other colonial buildings, stopping for photos by the fountain and gardens. Walking along a nearby original Inca street called Hatunrumiyoc, everybody can hunt for the famous 12-angled stone and other large stones cut and fitted with exceptional precision. Then we'll come across Coricancha, the Inca-Sun-temple-turned-Catholic-Church. Its walls and floors were once covered in sheets of solid gold! For a special farewell lunch, join your guide and a chef at Casa Del Medio Restaurant for a Peruvian cuisine demo cooking class. Savor the tiradito (King fish rolls) or ceviche (a marinated fish appetizer) you've helped to prepare, along with other native delicacies. Afterwards we drive up for about 15 minutes above town to see the mighty fortress of Sacsayhuaman, a spectacular Incan complex with commanding views of the Cusco valley. The rest of the afternoon is free to tie up any loose ends you may have in Cusco, a friendly city well-known for its great shopping and cultural opportunities. Dinner is on your own to scout out options along the cobbled streets of Cusco, where gourmet, vegetarian, and international restaurants have something for everyone. Palacio del Inka Hotel (B,L)

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

DAY 08	CUSCO / LIMA / OVERNIGHT FLIGHT We'll be picked up at the hotel mid morning for the drive to the airport in Cusco to catch the flight back to Lima. Lunch is on your own. Upon arrival, we join our local guide for a special private tour of colonial Lima. In 1988, UNESCO declared the historic center of Lima a World Heritage Site for its originality and high concentration of Spanish colonial monuments. Named the "City of Kings" and founded by the Spanish conquistador Francisco Pizarro in 1535, downtown Lima charms with its main square, cathedral and the Archbishop's Palace, plazas, churches, mansions, and balconies. Then, we'll head over to a favorite spot of local children in Lima, the Circuito Magico del Agua or "magic circuit of water". In this impressive park, kids can hop, skip, and jump through a display of colored lights, laser rays and fountains. What makes some of these fountains magical? They dance according to the rhythm of the music and actually interact and respond to movement! Afterwards, if time allows, we'll reward ourselves with a brief visit to a chocolate shop/museum, where we can learn how chocolate is made from bean to bar, and even try some of their treats! Get your fix with delicious hot chocolate and other edible surprises. For dinner on your own, try a typical seafood meal at one of the several gourmet restaurants in Larcomar, overlooking the Pacific Ocean in the trendy Miraflores district. This evening, meet up with your guide and transfer to the airport with check-in assistance for your overnight flight home. The modern Lima airport has dining, Wifi and VIP lounges inside security, to relax prior to your flight. (B)
DAY 09	HOME Arrive in your gateway city this morning and make onward connections home.

NOTES ON THE ITINERARY:

Although we do our best to adhere to the above schedule, this itinerary is subject to change for numerous reasons beyond our control, including group pace and acclimatization, weather, road and trail conditions, flight delays or cancellations, as well as changes in plane and train schedules. This trip is suitable for healthy participants accustomed to outdoor activities, ages 5 and up. A more active version of this trip is suitable for families with teens ages 12 and up, please contact Southwind for further details.

Changing the dates of the week on this itinerary may affect the flow of activities as some of the visits may not be available every day. Depending on final flight schedules, some of the activities on Day 2 and 8 may follow a different sequence. The chocolate shop/museum visit may take place in Cusco instead of Lima. Distances and altitudes are approximate and travel times indicated do not include lunch breaks, rest or photo stops, etc.

2027 LAND COST:

4-6 participants:	from $7,300 p.p.d.
7-12 participants:	from $6,800 p.p.d.
Single Supplement:	from $1,900

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

Children's Discount: Kids 5-11 years old at the time of travel are entitled to a discount of $600 ppd. Kids 12-17 years old at the time of travel receive a discount of $300 ppd on the Family Andean Discovery Land Cost. Discounts are not combinable, nor can they be used in conjunction with other promotional offers unless specified.

Notes: We can also operate this trip for 2-3 participants, budget on a Land Cost from $8,000 per person and call for specific pricing according to your travel dates. End of the year or holiday departures could have a Land Cost surcharge of 10-20%. Please check with your personal Southwind Travel Consultant for more details.

AIRFARE ON REQUEST: International and in-country airfare is not included in the land cost. Tickets should only be purchased after Southwind advises that your trip is confirmed. Southwind has a ticketing partner who can quote and help coordinate all your flights (or just the in-country flights on Latam) to match your tour itinerary. You'll have a dedicated agent to arrange your seats according to cabin preference, to monitor schedule changes and work directly with the airline on your behalf, if any adjustments are needed after ticketing. United, Delta, American and Latam provide service to Lima via their US gateway hubs. You have the option to purchase any of the flights yourself or redeem award travel directly through your airline program. The airlines request that your tickets match your full name in your passport (including middle name if shown). If connecting, a 2-hour minimum buffer is important between flights.

SERVICES INCLUDED:

Lima: JW Marriott Hotel (overlooking Pacific Ocean in the Miraflores district) or InterContinental

Peru: Family Andean Discovery

Real Miraflores Hotel.

Sacred Valley: Tambo del Inka Hotel (Luxury Collection) or Belmond Rio Sagrado Hotel.

Cusco: Belmond Monasterio Hotel (Cusco's original boutique historic hotel with oxygenated rooms, colonial arches & fine colonial artwork) or the luxurious Belmond Palacio Nazarenas Hotel.

Machu Picchu: Belmond Sanctuary Lodge (located at the entrance gate to Machu Picchu).

Note: Please see the Accommodations tab on the trip page for details. Due to high demand, we recommend booking these upgrades at least 4-5 months in advance. Space is subject to availability and cannot be guaranteed.

CUSTOM TRIPS AND ADDITIONAL ACTIVITIES:

Family trip variations are also available and designed on request for a minimum of 3-4 participants. We can also provide options for shorter itineraries with a minimum recommended of 6 days. Below follows a list of additional family-friendly activities for those travelers with extra time or to serve as ideas for a customized trip.

- Lunch with a local family in Chinchero: Kids 5 and up. 2-3 hr activity. Morning scenic drive to Chinchero (12,335') to tour this small, charming community characteristic of Andean towns in combining Incan and colonial architecture. Meet a host local family and enjoy a local style lunch inside their home.
- Weaving demonstration and workshop in Chinchero: Kids 5 and up. Half day from Cusco or the Sacred Valley. Join for an overview of the Andean weaving process and participate while wool is carded, spun, and dyed, learn about the different techniques used to create textiles such as wrist bands, belts (fajas) and shawls (mantas). Can be combined with lunch in a local family house.
- Additional short hikes near the Sacred Valley:
 - Pumamarca hike: Kids 7/up. After a 45-minute drive from Ollantaytambo up along the Patacancha river valley to the trailhead, we'll take a 1-hour hike uphill to the Pumamarca ruins (11,140'). Explore this former Inca religious and agricultural center that features terraces and water channels. The ancient water system is still in use today to irrigate potatoes and wheat fields. We'll then descend to a nearby village where our vehicle awaits.
 - Chinchero to Urquillos hike: Kids 7/up. From the Chinchero ruins (12,335'), observe a massive Inca wall with ten trapezoidal niches. After exploring the ruins of Inca Yupanqui's palace, begin a 5.5 mile hike (approx. 3.5 hrs) downhill to the village of Urquillos (9,595'). We follow a trail on a narrow gorge with great views of the Urubamba range and Chicon peak.
- Kayaking at Huaypo Lagoon: Kids 7/up. The tranquil and scenic Huaypo Lagoon (12,000') is set in the Chinchero highlands, 45 min from Cusco. For this half-day excursion, we'll spend the morning learning the basics of sea kayaking and then paddling out for 2-3 hours around the lagoon. Afterward, a delicious picnic lunch will be waiting on the shore. Kayaking equipment and experienced kayak guide included.
- Horseback ride in the Sacred Valley: Kids 12/up. After a short orientation, we'll mount Peruvian Paso Fino horses and set off on rural paths to small villages and communities neighboring such as Palcaraqui, Rumichaca, San Jose de Media Luna, Pumahanca and Chichubamba. As we trot along, you are transported into a rural lifestyle, greeting villagers in their typical dress. Approximately 3 hours.
- Biking the Chinchero highlands: Teens 12/up. Bike along country dirt roads to the Moray concentric terraces. Approximately 3 hours riding. Elevations 11,000' to 12,500'.
- Rafting in the Urubamba River: Teens 12/up. For a day of fun and adventure, we'll head to the village of Cusipata (11,200') about 1.5 hours' drive southeast of Cusco. We'll ride the Cusipata to Quiquijana section of the Urubamba River for about 2.5 hours, featuring class II and III rapids. Picnic lunch included. After this activity families explore the region with visits to the Pikillacta ruins and local villages. We'll end the day heading to our lodging in the Sacred Valley.
- A day with an Andean community: Kids 7/up. Learn about Peru's prized crop at the Potato Park, a fascinating ecotourism project taking visitors to six different indigenous communities. Here, not all potatoes are created equal – you'll see over 200 different varieties! Meet farmers, weavers, shepherds and cooks throughout the day, go for an optional 2-hour hike, and taste a feast of traditional dishes for lunch at the all-organic community restaurant Papamanka. Elevations between 10,500' and 12,500'.

Dayhike on Inca Trail from Km 104 to Machu Picchu (Day 04):

A private trekking guide accompanies participants who choose to disembark the Vistadome train at Km 104 and hike the classic stone-paved Inca Trail through the Gateway of the Sun to approach Machu Picchu as the Incas did centuries ago. The 7-mile hike is moderate/difficult but highly rewarding and takes approximately 6.5 hours. Extra costs apply for the required permit and logistics, advance planning is recommended (permits can sell out 3-4 months or more in advance). Please contact our office for details.

OPTIONAL TRIP EXTENSIONS:

Extend your travels to the Amazon rainforest, Lake Titicaca, Northern Peru, Arequipa & the Colca Canyon or Paracas Reserve and the Nazca Lines on the Southern coast. The Galápagos Islands can also be added. All extensions require a minimum of 2 participants. To view the extensions on our website, see Extend Your Trip.

WEATHER: Much of this trip takes place where atmospheric conditions can change suddenly. Guests must be prepared for all possibilities ranging from intense sunshine to rain, cold, and/or wind. April-May or September-October are ideal months in the Andes of Peru. January-March is the rainy (but less crowded) season in the highlands. Time is included in the cloud forests on the eastern slopes of the Andes, so rain should be expected any month. Brief hail, sleet or snowstorms might also occur at the highest elevations mostly during the rainy season, January through March. Andean nights are cold while the days are pleasant and springlike. Cusco has daytime highs in the mid 70's and nighttime lows in the upper 30's. The Sacred Valley is about 10-15° warmer. The daytime temperatures at Machu Picchu are hot (80-85°F) with mild nights (lows around 45-50°F) and the likelihood of rain is high. Expect showers or mist on most departures. The sun is quite intense at these elevations.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: Southwind strongly recommends that you purchase optional coverage to protect your trip investment. Having coverage provides peace of mind and is important in case of unexpected trip cancellation due to illness or health/medical condition/injury requiring medical treatment by a physician. Other benefits can include tour delay/interruption from flight issues, weather events, strikes, medical quarantine or emergency accident/illness with evacuation to nearest treatment by US standards. Southwind recommends the Worldwide Trip Protector Deluxe from Travel Insured International. We can provide an eQuote on request tailored to your trip. A policy can be purchased directly from TII online or by phone with their customer service in CT at 800-243-3174. You are also welcome to arrange travel insurance coverage through any provider of your choice.

NEXT STEPS: Please contact Southwind to help fine tune your travel plans and to receive a custom itinerary with a land cost quote based on your travel dates. You can reach us by completing our Private Trip Request form, by email at info@southwindadventures.com, by phone at 800-377-9463 or by text to 303-972-0701.

Reservations can be made up to 60 days before departure, provided tour services and hotels are available. Due to the popularity of Machu Picchu and the limited number of visitors per day, we recommend making reservations at least 4-5 months in advance for non-holiday or about 1 year prior for holiday departures. Once your trip is confirmed to operate, you will receive pre-departure planning materials, flight booking assistance and advice to help prepare for your exciting vacation in Peru.

We look forward to having you travel with us in Peru!
